Wooten Wisdom...

As many of you know, I love to read and my reading covers a variety of genres from fiction to history to a variety of church topics. I am drawn to books for a couple of reasons: first, the idea that books contain knowledge as yet undiscovered by me. A book, regardless of the genre, is a world to be discovered; it is a place where I can learn something new. The anticipation of what I will find within a book's pages excites me.

The second reason I love to read is because a book is, at its core, about story. It is about someone else sharing a piece of themselves. Their thoughts around a particular topic are shaped by their own life experiences so that even if the book is about ideas, those ideas could not exist apart from the person who made them. I enjoy getting to know authors and characters in novels by reading their story. I become invested in the people as I learn more about them and hear some of my story echoing theirs.

Stories get at the heart of who we are. And I think this is the reason God chose to reveal God's self through story. God knew that people would not be able to build a relationship with God without God entering our story. I think this is also why we are called to walk this journey of faith as a community -- because stories are best shared with others.

Now if you are like me, you don't always agree with what you read. Yet that is one of the reasons I read -- I want to challenge my understanding of the world and my faith and I am enriched by it. The same is true when we share our thoughts and ideas with one another. We may not always agree but if we can have a conversation in love and mutual respect, we will be made the better for it.

Our Pentecost theme is "Ignited by God's Story" and indeed as we engage God's story in scripture and through the stories of people's experience of God, we are ignited with a passion for the God who is engaged and active in our lives. My prayer is that we take the opportunity to share our stories with one another and to engage in real conversations about our faith so that we may come to know our God and each other more deeply.

~Grace and peace, Brandi

ONGOING MISSION SUPPORT FOR SWEM

Please continue to donate food and hygiene items to SWEM during the SUMMER, since SUMMER frequently causes a strain on food pantries.

SUMMER doesn’t resonate as a “season for giving” like winter does. Many people vacation during the SUMMER months, so they tend to give more during Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Remember, the need for food continues all year, and children no longer receive breakfast and lunch at school during the SUMMER months.

Thanks to all who have donated to SWEM in 2014.

In May, 46 food items were delivered.

In April, 50 food items were delivered.

Hygiene items and paper goods were donated as well.

Our mission to SWEM is greatly appreciated by those in need who depend on food cupboards in their daily lives. Check out the list of specific items which are always needed at the SWEM Food Cupboard. Why not cut out the list and post on your fridge, as a reminder of always-needed items?

The SWEM collection box is clearly labeled and is always here for your donations. Thank you for your continued generosity!

~Jane & Fred Schulitz, SWEM Coordinators

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

August 17, 2014

Many of us are fortunate to be able to travel freely in our vehicles, run errands, go to the store, and attend worship.

We want to remember our Chili Pres friends who do not have such easy mobility, and cannot worship with us each Sunday.

*Your Pentecost Season Team would like to remember these special people by delivering a cheerful flower bouquet to them.
We want to brighten their day, and let them know that we at Chili Pres are thinking of them.*

Would you like to help us?

*If so, please sign up in Fellowship Hall.
We are looking for a simple bouquet from your own garden or from the florist.
We have a supply of vases, but if you want to include a container of your own,
that would be welcome.*

Please bring the flowers to church on Sunday August 17th. Our team will arrange the bouquets and make the deliveries that afternoon.

*Thanks for your help...
and for remembering our Chili Pres friends!
~Your Pentecost Season Team~

will return in September. New signup sheets will be available in Fellowship Hall, towards the end of August.
All who want to give of themselves are encouraged to sign up for these volunteer opportunities. Thank you!

BUILDING SAFETY / BUILDING SECURITY

Everyone should be aware that there are occurrences of people stopping at Chili Pres (and other churches) looking for aid of some kind. The staff at Chili Pres must quickly determine if we can help that person, and if there is a security issue
associated with the interaction.
The staff must assume that they are in a secure building.

When you ring the doorbell, and then the door chime announces entry, the staff can be reasonably sure that you are a person who has a building key and has reason to be here. If the doorbell doesn't ring and the door chime announces entry, the staff cannot be sure who is entering the building. Was a door left ajar or unlocked?

Your consideration for the well-being of the staff is appreciated. Please always ring the doorbell when you arrive, even if you have a key.

And please take an extra moment when you leave the church building to double-check that the door locks behind you. Thank you!

Minister of Music

Thank You!

First and foremost, thank you. I am coming to a close on my 3rd year as Minister of Music at Chili Presbyterian, and I marvel at what the Lord has done in my life these last 3 years and in the life of our church over that same time.

If you had told me that I would be a Music Director for a church 4 years ago, I would probably have given you a face of disbelief. I spent years prior to this calling being in a rock band and performing. Yes I led worship, but I didn't necessarily have that passion for being a worship leader in a church setting. And then to lead a singing choir and a bell choir in church? Those were definitely not my plans. And then it all changed.

I will tell you honestly that I had never gotten a spiritual calling like the one I received for this position. I know the Lord called me to Chili Presbyterian, and gave me the thoughts and ideas to how I feel music should be in a worship setting. The Lord has been molding me for this position for most of my life, and it was only a few years ago that I began to figure it out. And when I started to figure it out, and began this calling at Chili Presbyterian, I fell in love with it. Whitney could see the change in me, the passion I had for ministry, and how real the calling God gave me was.

I have been very successful here at Chili, but my success is only to the goal of furthering God's kingdom, and to the fact that I have amazing support in this church. I cannot do this job alone – but I feel God has given me tools to lead others to build our community.

I need to thank the senior choir – you are all so dedicated to being a part of our choir. You show up every week to practice, put your trust in me to lead you and each week we bring joy to God through our song. Even in times when you're nervous about a song, or singing acapella, you put your trust in me and in the group and God blesses you for that. And you sound GREAT!!! Thank you for your continued support.

I need to thank the bell choir – 3 years ago, I had no idea about anything to do with bells, chimes or leading a bell choir. I told you on day one that I didn't really know exactly what to do to help you as a bell choir, other than count and wave my arms.

You trusted me on day one and after 3 years, we have done some really awesome things together and I have learned so much. I am so blessed by all of you who have been a part of Bell Choir, and I have grown a newfound passion for bell choir leading. Thank you for your continued support.

I need to thank Pastor Brandi. We have been on a very intricate journey together these last few years. It has been very enjoyable, and I know God continues to use us. You have put your trust in me and allowed me to expand ideas on how to worship. I have been able to use so many unique ways to worship which I never thought I would be able to do in a church setting. Thank you for your continued support.

And finally I need to thank my beautiful wife, Whitney. This has been an adventure that we have been able to share together. From all the various things you do behind the scenes, to the mentoring you do with youth group – I know none of this is possible without your ideas, your prayers, and your vision. I am so blessed to be able to share this ministry with a supporting, loving woman of God. Thank you for loving me and supporting me on this journey we share together.

So as 3 years comes to a close, I cannot thank you all enough for your continued support. We can do great things when we come together as a church family and seek the Lord! I continue to look forward to many more years of joy worshipping together in the Chili Presbyterian community.

~Be blessed and continue to let the music play, Adam

CHILI PRESBYTERIAN YOUTH GROUPS

What a year it's been!

It's hard to believe, but I have just completed my 7th year as Youth Director at Chili Pres! Each year brings new adventures and new stories to tell. Making memories through youth group is long-lasting, and Whitney and I are so blessed to be a part of our youth's faith journeys.

Another year is ending, a year filled with joy, learning, reflection, friends, fun, and of course: laser tag. We did a big, year-long contest this year, which included attendance and verse memorization. Congrats to Abby Wasmer for winning the award, holding off the rest in a very close race.

We ended our time this year by leading the youth service where we talked about slowing down and removing distractions in our lives to see the beauty that God has put all around us. It was a great service and the youth did a great job coming together and sharing their feelings.

Congrats also to our graduates!!!! Sterling DePaul and Daniel Cuffe: you are awesome guys and we will miss you! Good luck to you in your future endeavors, and know that we are always here for you to lean on when you need us.

Have a great summer everyone! Youth group kick off starts up again on September 7th with a parent meeting!!!
